

Attention Pesticide Applicators: TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

Location: Livingston Elks Lodge

Date: April 15, 2024

Time: 6:00-7:00 pm

Agenda

5:30 Doors open

6:00 Parasite Management in grazing beef cattle with Dr. Don Bliss, MidAmerica Agricultural Research

6:50 Time for questions

7:00 Adjourn

This free training will provide 1 continuing education private applicator credit.

RSVP to park@montana.edu or call (406) 222-4156 if you plan on attending.

This training opportunity is hosted by Spurline, Merck Animal Health, and MSU Extension-Park County.

Location: Shields Valley Senior Center, Wilsall

Date: April 17, 2024

Time: 5:00-7:00 pm

Agenda

4:30-5:00 Doors open, food provided

5:00-5:50 Managing Woody Invasives with Mat Walter, Agriculture and Natural Resources Extension Agent in Lewis and Clark County

5:50-6:00 Time for questions

6:00-6:50 Grasshopper biology, lifecycles, and species diversity and how that integrates into existing management tools and techniques with Hannah Lewis, Plant Health Safeguarding Specialist, US Department of Agriculture

6:50-7:00 Time for questions

7:00 Adjourn

This free training will provide 2 continuing education private applicator credits.

Food will be provided. RSVP to park@montana.edu or call (406) 222-4156 if you plan on attending.

DEADLINE

Private applicators have until December 31st, 2024 to obtain their required 6 hours of continuing education credits.

To view upcoming courses or check credit hours, visit:

<https://mtplants.mt.gov/Index.aspx>

- ⇒ Pesticide Programs >Course Locator
- ⇒ Pesticide Programs >Pesticide License Search

