NOTE:

On September 30, 2022, the MT Supreme Court ruled that the last of the four bills from the 2021 Legislative Session were unconstitutional and not to be enforced. As of now, there are no changes to late registration, issuance of a ballot to an underage elector, voter identification requirements, or prohibitions on ballot collection. As new legislation is introduced in the 2023 Legislative Session the OPI will update the election calendar to reflect any changes that may impact the May school election.

If the deadline, as read in statute, is phrased "not later than..." the deadline does not move to a later date but an earlier one.
